

Session 1

Friday May 3, 2019

- 1) What are some things we can do to 'marinate' in the Gospel?
- 2) "Let me give you a new command: Love one another. In the same way I loved you, you love one another. This is how everyone will recognize that you are my disciples—when they see the love you have for each other."

Are there "hard to love" people in your life? What are some practical steps you can take to love them with the supernatural love of God that reveals God to our world?

- 3) How does the truth of eternity set your agenda?
- 4) "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field. Matthew 13:44 (NIV)

What am I investing my time, money, talents, etc. in?

- Are there things you need to reprioritize?
- Are there things you need to stop doing?

- 5) "God has indeed prepared the Gentile world to receive the gospel. Significant numbers of non-Christians, therefore, have proved themselves many times more willing to receive the gospel than we Christians historically have been to share it with them."

(Don Richardson, Eternity in their Hearts)

He [Jesus] told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Luke 10:2 (NIV)

What practical steps can I take to be a worker in the Lord's Harvest field & be more willing to share the Gospel?
